

A vibrant, cartoon-style illustration of a Halloween night scene. In the foreground, three children are walking on a cobblestone path, each holding a jack-o'-lantern basket. On the left, a boy dressed as a vampire with a black cape and red bow tie. In the center, a girl dressed as a witch with a purple cape and a tall black hat. On the right, a girl in a white ghost costume. A black cat with a yellow bow is walking alongside them. In the background, there are houses with lit windows, a large full moon, and several bats flying in the sky. A ghost is peeking out from a doorway on the right. The title 'HALLOWEEN' is written in large, orange, dripping letters, and 'ARBEIDSHEFTE' is written in black, block letters below it.
