

A vibrant, cartoon-style illustration of a Halloween night scene. In the foreground, three children are walking on a cobblestone path, each carrying a glowing jack-o'-lantern basket. On the left, a boy is dressed as a vampire with a black suit, white shirt, red bow tie, and a red cape. In the center, a girl is dressed as a witch with a purple dress, a purple cape, and a tall black witch hat with a gold buckle. On the right, a child is in a white ghost costume with large black eyes. A small black cat with a yellow bow is walking alongside them. The background features a large, full yellow moon, several black bats flying in the dark blue sky, and houses with glowing windows. A ghost is peeking out from a doorway on the right, and a large jack-o'-lantern sits on the steps. The ground is covered with orange and yellow autumn leaves. The title 'HALLOWEEN' is written in large, orange, dripping letters, and 'ARBEIDSHEFTE' is in smaller, black, block letters below it.
